

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

The irony of democracy....having a corporation complain about infringements on rights (created with individuals-not companies-in mind) that would only serve to make them more money not increase the freedom of people to pursue their own source of information.
